

February 22, 2019

City Council Agenda

City Council Meeting
Tuesday, February 26; 6 p.m.
13230 Penn Street, Whittier

The City Council meets the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. View the City Council Agenda here.

Feds Rush Whittier Narrows Dam Fix to Prevent Breach that Would Flood 1M Residents from Pico Rivera to Long Beach

January 17, 2019
Whittier Daily News

Because of the potential of massive flooding, the Army Corps of Engineers is rushing to begin a $500-million repair project for Whittier Narrows Dam, classified as the highest priority of any of the 13 “high risk” dams in the country.

Read more here.

Board Narrows Trustee Maps to 3

February 19, 2019
Whittier Union High School District

The Whittier Union High School District Board of Trustees has selected three draft trustee area maps to consider as the District transitions from at-large elections to trustee-area elections and members prepare to select a final map for adoption on Tuesday, Feb. 19.

Read more here.

Lawmakers announce a deal to prevent another government shutdown, but prospects remain uncertain

February 11, 2019
Los Angeles Times

Lawmakers late Monday reached an agreement in principle on border security that would allow them to fund the government beyond Friday, according to congressional officials from both parties.

Read more here.

Gov. Gavin Newsom Calls Out Cities that Fail to Plan for Housing

February 12, 2019
The Press-Enterprise

Gov. Gavin Newsom announced Tuesday he plans to invite leaders of 45 noncompliant California cities and two counties to a “candid conversation” aimed at encouraging them to find “the political courage to build their fair share of housing.”

Read more here.

Whittier Says No to a Proposed Hotel on Whittier Boulevard for Second Time

February 21, 2019
Whittier Daily News

The owner of a half-acre site on Whittier Boulevard in Whittier, who first wanted to build a Motel 6 and later a Best Western Hotel, again has been turned down by the City Council.

Read more here.

Disclaimer: You are receiving this email based on your category with the Whittier Chamber. If you wish to not receive Business & Economic Development updates twice a month on Fridays, please click the "unsubscribe" link below.

Our mission is to promote and develop the economic, cultural, and civil welfare of Whittier by offering our members superior business networking events, business development and educational opportunities, marketing assistance, and legislative advocacy.

STAY CONNECTED

(562) 698-9554 | 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. M-F
