

April 5, 2019

City Council Agenda

City Council Meeting
Tuesday, April 9; 6 p.m.
13230 Penn Street, Whittier

The City Council meets the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. View the City Council Agenda here.

Linda Sánchez's Legislation to Assist Small Businesses in Offering Retirement Plans to Employees Passed in Ways and Means Committee

April 2, 2019
Linda Sánchez

The Ways and Means Committee today unanimously passed legislation which includes H.R.982, a bipartisan bill authored in the House by U.S. Representative Linda Sánchez (D-CA) along with Congressman Phil Roe (R-TN), to reduce costs for small businesses looking to offer retirement plans to their employees.

Read more here.

New Required Poster for California Employers Started This Week

March 7, 2019
HR Watchdog

Look out, California employers! Another required posting started on Monday.

Read more here.

Small Business Entrepreneurship Program Scholarship Opportunity

Application due: Wednesday, May 1, 2019

The Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses Program is a scholarship-based program (paid for by Goldman Sachs Foundation) for qualified small business owners who are interested in growing their business and adding jobs to our communities. It offers you valuable skills, the opportunity to access financial capital, powerful networking opportunities, and much more.

Click here to apply today!

Linda Sánchez and Grace Napolitano Request Over $100 Million for Dam Safety Projects, Including Whittier Narrows

April 2, 2019

Linda Sánchez

Reps. Linda T. Sánchez (CA-38) and Grace F. Napolitano (CA-32) have sent a letter to the House Appropriations Subcommittee on Energy and Water Resources requesting $100,405,000 for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers' Construction Account's Dam Safety and Seepage/Stability Correction Program, citing Whittier Narrows Dam as a potential recipient of federal funding.

Read more here.

Supervisor Janice Hahn Opposes Changing Los Angeles Memorial Colosseum's Name

March 25, 2019

Los Angeles Times

USC is planning on changing the name of the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum to the United Airlines Memorial Coliseum. Janice Hahn argued in her Op-Ed in the LA Times this weekend that this is a huge mistake.

Read about it here.

Whittier Union AVID Student Named 2019 Edison Scholar, Receives $40,000 Scholarship

April 3, 2019

Whittier Union High School District

Pioneer High School senior Ana Cortez received the shock of her life when she was surprised with a $40,000 Edison scholarship while sitting in her AP Chemistry class on March 20, surrounded by friends, classmates and teachers. Cortez is one of just 30 Southern California high school students to be named a 2019 Edison Scholar.

Read more here.

U.S. Adds 196,000 Jobs in March, a Return to Solid Growth

April 5, 2019

The New York Times

The buoyant jobs market that has helped sustain American households for the better part of a decade did not go anywhere.

Read more here.

Rio Hondo College Dean Steve Hebert Honored as CCCADA Athletics Director of the Year

April 3, 2019

Rio Hondo College

The award is a recognition of Hebert's "tremendous impact" on the association, according to a letter by CCCADA President Dan Clauss announcing the honor.

Read more here.

Disclaimer: You are receiving this email based on your category with the Whittier Chamber. If you wish to not receive Business & Economic Development updates twice a month on Fridays, please click the "unsubscribe" link below.

Our mission is to promote and develop the economic, cultural, and civil welfare of Whittier by offering our members superior business networking events, business development and educational opportunities, marketing assistance, and legislative advocacy.

STAY CONNECTED

(562) 698-9554 | 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. M-F