

April 19, 2019

City Council Agenda

City Council Meeting
Tuesday, April 23; 6 p.m.
13230 Penn Street, Whittier

The City Council meets the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. View the City Council Agenda here.

L.A. County Supervisors Vote to Extend Rent Increase Cap Through 2019

April 9, 2019
Los Angeles Times

The Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors on Tuesday extended rent-control and eviction protections in the unincorporated areas until next year, after a lengthy hearing with dueling input from affordable housing advocates and the real estate industry.

Read more here.

LACMA's New $650-million new building wins approval from county supervisors

April 9, 2019
Los Angeles Times

The Board of Supervisors unanimously voted in favor of allocating $117.5 million to help fund a beautiful new gallery space designed by famed architect Peter Zumthor at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art.

Read more here.

Best Retail Sales Since 2017 Brighten U.S. Growth Outlook

April 18, 2019
Bloomberg

Retail sales in the U.S. jumped by the most since September 2017 and first-time filings for unemployment benefits dropped to a fresh 49-year low, as a strong labor market gives American consumers the wherewithal to keep the economy chugging along.

Read more here.

Small Business Entrepreneurship Program Scholarship Opportunity

Application due: Wednesday, May 1, 2019

The Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses Program is a scholarship-based program (paid for by Goldman Sachs Foundation) for qualified small business owners who are interested in growing their business and adding jobs to our communities. It offers you valuable skills, the opportunity to access financial capital, powerful networking opportunities, and much more.

Click here to apply today!

Disclaimer: You are receiving this email based on your category with the Whittier Chamber. If you wish to not receive Business & Economic Development updates twice a month on Fridays, please click the "unsubscribe" link below.

Our mission is to promote and develop the economic, cultural, and civil welfare of Whittier by offering our members superior business networking events, business development and educational opportunities, marketing assistance, and legislative advocacy.

STAY CONNECTED

(562) 698-9554 | 8:30 a.m. - 5 p.m. M-F